

EL CAMINO INSTRUCTOR TO BE ON TELEVISION

Classroom to camera will be the regular beat of El Camino College instructor George Stanley for the coming 13 weeks. Students, accustomed to seeing the young teacher behind lectern or over an examination paper may be startled to see him from the screens of three television channels. Stanley, who teaches psychology at El Camino, recently signed a 13-week contract which started Jan. 13. During this period he will be performing in weekly spot commercials on Channels 5, 11, and 13. His appearances will be made primarily on the late shows. Late Show Wednesday and Friday appearances on the Del Moore late show and other late show spots will constitute the major portion of his television work. Television appearances are not new to Stanley, who has worked for two years with the Inner Sanctum show, and a year with the Starlight Theater, and who has made many spot commercials for contact lenses. In other entertainment media, the instructor appeared in a bit part on the "Francis" series in motion pictures. His first appearances were made in the films working as a double in aquacados and other sequences requiring the services of a professional athlete in swimming and diving. Stanley has appeared frequently with the radio personality, Jim Hawthorne on his shows. Enlists in Army Born in Boston, Mass., Stanley enlisted in the army medical department at the age of 17. He was president of his high school graduating class at Roxbury, Mass., where he won all-state honors in swimming, track, and football. After receiving his bachelor of science degree in the psychology of speech from the University of Southern California, Stanley enrolled for graduate work in speech and psychology at Northwestern University, completing work for his master of arts degree at Los Angeles State College. The instructor is now in his third year on the El Camino College staff. Prior to coming to El Camino, he was personnel director of St. Francis Hospital in Lynwood. Burglary Reported The William Richard Evlizer residence, 4003 175th Pl., was ransacked by burglars, according to police reports Monday. While every room had been disturbed, only $65, from two banks, was taken.

SOUTHWEST PARK TO HOLD ELECTION The Southwest Park Civic Assn. will meet Tuesday evening, Feb. 4, at the Carl Steel School beginning at 8 p.m. A short movie entitled "Torrance and Its Growth," will be shown. Highlight of the meeting will be election of officers for the coming year. Installation dinner dance is being scheduled for the Jump'n Jack March 1.
